When the booking has been confirmed in writing by the Company to the applicant (herein after called "the Passenger") the deposit is accepted as a first installment of the fare and is not refundable.
- 2 Payment of Fare Balance The balance of the fare must be paid not later than 60 days prior to departure. In the default of payment by this date, the Passenger shall be deemed to have cancelled their tour and will forfeit the deposit paid. The exception is where the Company can request part payment early due to factors outside of its control (for example, airline fare increases or surcharges).
- 3 Amendments Once the Passenger is confirmed on a tour changing to another tour is not possible. Should the Passenger wish to alter their tour arrangements after their booking has been confirmed, they must notify the Company in writing and it will endeavour to meet their wishes. If the alteration is possible, an amendment fee of $100 per amendment may be charged in addition to the cost of the extra services required.
- 4 Cancellation Charges Any cancellation must be made in writing. The date on which that notification is received by the Company is the date that will determine the level of cancellation charge. If the Passenger cancels their booking, cancellation charges will be charged according to the following:
 - a more than 60 days prior to departure—forfeit deposit.
